To New Patients:

This packet includes information about me and forms for you to fill out and bring with you to our first session. It is a lot of reading, but the information is important, so please review it in its entirety. If for some reason you are unable to complete the paperwork before our session, I will have copies in my office, and we will use your session time to complete the paperwork.

Please complete this paperwork prior to our initial meeting so that we can spend our time together focusing on the personal concerns that you wish to consult me about. I look forward to meeting with you.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Counselor Training, Counseling Orientation, General Information, and Counseling Fees

Training and Degrees: I received my Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology from Mars Hill Graduate School (now Seattle School of Theology and Psychology) in December 2005. This program is fully accredited by TRACS, a national accrediting agency that is recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. I received my Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Western Oregon University. I began my clinical experience in 2004 working with adolescents and adults in a variety of contexts including inpatient and outpatient hospital settings. I am credentialed as a Washington State Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LH00011043). Christian Health Group Inc, PS is affiliated and practices collaboratively at Christian Management Services, LLC.

Counseling Orientation: I approach counseling from a client-centered and strength-based perspective. This means that I tailor my methods to the strengths and needs of each of my clients. In my first few sessions with a client, I work to create a therapeutic relationship in which the client feels safe to process his or her concerns openly, without fear of judgment; this way, we can determine together what the best approach will be for his or her treatment. In counseling, I think of myself as a personal trainer: I provide tools and resources that my clients can use to empower themselves as they go into the world to seek health and freedom. As a Christian counselor, I use the principles of the Bible and Christian doctrine where appropriate. Very often, I will work with clients on goal setting and assign homework to allow them to hone the skills learned in therapy. Working with children and adolescents, I emphasize family involvement and building positive relationships. My methods are informed by a variety of clinical theories including: Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Dialectical Behavior Therapy, Motivational Interviewing, Existential, Psychodynamic, Object Relations, Gestalt Therapy, and Brief Solution Focused Therapy.

Fees: The fee for counseling is $165 per 53-minute session. Initial sessions are run in the 53-minute session format. Payments (cash, check, or credit) are to be made at the beginning of each session. A $30 fee will be charged for returned checks. Unpaid balances incur the maximum finance charge allowed by law after 30 days. Outstanding balances may be sent to a collection agency. For new patients without insurance: Chris' rate is $165, this fee is for a 53-minute session. We accept payment by cash, check (made payable to Christian Management Services, LLC), or credit card.

For In-Network Patients: Chris is in-network with the following insurance companies: Premera and LifeWise. If your policy requires a copay or co-insurance, we will collect payment at the time of service. We accept cash, check (made payable to Christian Health Group, Inc., P.S.), or credit card. We will bill your insurance company for you. If for any reason, your insurance company does not reimburse for services you will be responsible for your session fees. Unfortunately, due to contractual obligations with insurance companies, the risk-free initial session cannot be offered for use with in-network insurance benefits.

For Out-of-Network Patients: If Chris is not in-network with your insurance carrier, but your plan covers out-of-network benefits, we will accept payment for the session and provide a receipt that you can submit to your insurance company for reimbursement. Chris' rate is $165, this fee is for a 53-minute session. We recommend checking with your insurance company to see what the reimbursement rate is so that there are no surprises. We accept payment by cash, check (made payable to Christian Management Services, LLC), or credit card.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Cancellation Policy, Missed Appointments, Termination of Treatment

Cancellation Policy: Chris has a 72-hour cancellation policy and would appreciate as much advance notice as possible if there is a change in your schedule. Cancellations received with less than 72-hour notice are subject to the full session fee. We understand unforeseen scheduling conflicts may occur, if you must cancel an appointment at short notice, please check with us as we may be able to reschedule the session for another time that is mutually Missed Appointments: If you are unable to keep an appointment, please notify me via phone a minimum of 72 hours in advance. E-mail and text messages are not adequate notice. If you miss your appointment for whatever reason and fail to give me adequate notice, you will be responsible for the full fee for the session. If you are late, I will still stop at our regular ending time to keep my schedule, and you will still be required to pay for the entire session. In the event of a missed appointment, the bill will reflect a late cancellation instead of a clinical session. Most insurance companies will not reimburse for missed appointments. If I have an emergency, I will notify you as soon as possible of my need to reschedule our appointment.

Termination of Treatment: When you wish to terminate treatment, please give a minimum of one week’s notice. You may terminate treatment at any time without moral, legal, or financial obligation beyond payment of services already rendered. It is expected that we will discuss the prospect of termination so that both parties will be clear about any details that need attention as part of the termination process. If you fail to schedule a future appointment, cancel a scheduled appointment, or fail to keep a scheduled appointment and do not contact me within 30 days of the date of last recorded contact, it will be understood that you have terminated treatment. I shall have no further obligation to you once treatment has been terminated.

Testifying in Court: If you become involved in any legal proceedings that require my participation, you will be expected to pay for all my professional time, even if I am called to testify by another party. The rate for court and legal proceedings is $200 per hour including preparation, travel (to and from) and attendance (wait time and testimony | participation). Please note, I am not a certified child custody evaluator and will be unable to testify in child custody case.

Choosing a Counselor: You have the right to choose a counselor who best suits your needs and purposes. You may seek a second opinion from another mental health practitioner or may terminate therapy at any time.

State Mandated Disclosure: I have broad discretion to release any information that I deem relevant in situations where I believe my patient or others to be at risk of physical harm, physical or sexual abuse, molestation, or severe neglect.

Consultations: I regularly consult with other professionals regarding patients with whom I am working. This allows me to gain other perspectives and ideas about how to better help you reach your goals. These consultations are conducted in such a way that confidentiality is maintained.

State Registration: Therapists practicing psychotherapy for a fee must be registered or certified with the Department of Health for the protection of the public health and safety. Registration of an individual with the department does not include recognition of any practice standards, nor does it necessarily imply the effectiveness of any treatment. The purpose of the Counselor Credentialing Act (Chapter 18.19 RCW) is (a) to provide protection for public health and safety, and (b) to empower the citizens of the State of Washington by providing a complaint process against those counselors who commit acts of unprofessional conduct.

Unprofessional Conduct: The brochure titled "Counseling or Hypnotherapy Patients" lists ways in which counselors may work in an unprofessional manner. If you suspect that my conduct has been unprofessional in any way, please contact the Department of Health at the following address and phone number:

HIPAA COMPLIANCE NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to this information. This information will include Protected Health Information (PHI), as that term is defined in privacy regulations issued by the United States Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and, as applicable, RCW Chapter 70.02 entitled “Medical Records - Health Care Access and Disclosure.” Please review it carefully.

We respect your privacy. We understand that your personal health information is very sensitive. We will not disclose your information to others unless you tell us to do so, or unless the law authorizes or requires us to do so. The law protects the privacy of the health information we create and obtain in providing our care and services to you. For example, your protected health information includes your symptoms, test results, diagnoses, treatments, health information from other providers, and billing and payment information relating to these services. Federal and state law allows us to use and disclose your protected health information for purposes of treatment and health care operations. State law requires us to get your authorization to disclose this information for payment purposes.

Protected Health Information:

Protected health information means individually identifiable health information:

- Transmitted by electronic media.
- Maintained in any medium described in the definition of electronic media; or
- Transmitted or maintained in any other form or medium.

Examples of Use and Disclosures of Protected Health Information for Treatment, Payment, and Health Operations

For treatment:

- Information obtained by a nurse, physician, clinical psychologist, MSW, therapist, or other member of our health care team will be recorded in your medical record and used to help decide what care may be right for you.
- We may also provide information to others providing you care. This will help them stay informed about your care.

For payment:

- In Washington State, written patient permission is required to use or disclose PHI for payment purposes, including to your health insurance plan. We will have you sign another form Assignment of Benefits or similar form for this purpose (RCW 70.02.030(6)). Health plans need information from us about your medical care. Information provided to health plans may include your diagnosis, procedures performed, or recommended care.

For health care operations:

- We use your medical records to assess quality and improve services.
- We may use and disclose medical records to review the qualifications and performance of our health care providers and to train our staff.
- We may contact you to remind you about appointments and give you information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services.
- We may use and disclose your information to conduct or arrange for services, including medical quality review by your health plan.
accounting, legal, risk management, and insurance services.
audit functions, including fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

The health and billing records we create, and store are the property of health care provider. The protected health information in it, however, generally belongs to you. You have a right to:

- Receive, read, and ask questions about this Notice.
- Ask us to restrict certain uses and disclosures. You must deliver this request in writing to us. We are not required to grant the request. But we will comply with any request granted.
- Request and receive from us a paper copy of the most current Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information (“Notice”).
- Request that you be allowed to see and get a copy of your protected health information. You may make this request in writing. We have a form available for this type of request.
- Have us review a denial of access to your health information—except in certain circumstances.
- Ask us to change your health information. You may give us this request in writing. You may write a statement of disagreement if your request is denied. It will be stored in your medical record and included with any release of your records.
- When you request, we will give you a list of disclosures of your health information. The list will not include disclosures to third-party payors. You may receive this information without charge once every 12 months. We will notify you of the cost involved if you request this information more than once in 12 months.
- Ask that your health information be given to you by another means or at another location. Please sign, date, and give us your request in writing.
- Cancel prior authorizations to use or disclose health information by giving us a written revocation. Your revocation does not affect information that has already been released. It also does not affect any action taken before we have it. Sometimes, you cannot cancel an authorization if its purpose was to obtain insurance.

For help with these rights during normal business hours, please contact our Privacy Officer:

Psychotherapy Notes:

Notes recorded (in any medium) by a health care provider who is a mental health professional documenting or analyzing the contents of a conversation during a private counseling session or a group, joint, or family counseling session and that are separated from the rest of the individual’s medical record. Psychotherapy notes excludes medication prescription and monitoring, counseling session start and stop times, the modalities and frequencies of treatment furnished, results of clinical tests, and any summary of the following items: diagnosis, functional status, the treatment plan, symptoms, prognosis, and progress to date. An authorization to use or disclose psychotherapy notes is required except if used by the originator of the notes for treatment, to a person or persons reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat (including the target of the threat), if the originator believes in good faith that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public, if the notes are to be used in the course of training students, trainees or practitioners in mental health; to defend a legal action or any other legal proceeding brought forth by the patient; when used by a medical examiner or coroner; for health oversight activities of the originator; or when required by law.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

We are required to:

- Keep your protected health information private.
- Give you this Notice.
- Follow the terms of this Notice.

We have the right to change our practices regarding the protected health information we maintain. If we make changes, we will update this Notice. You may receive the most recent copy of this Notice by calling and asking for it or by visiting our office or medical records department to pick one up.

To Ask for Help or Complain

If you have questions, want more information, or want to report a problem about the handling of your protected health information, you may contact our Privacy Officer at the above address.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may discuss your concerns with the Privacy Officer. You may send a written complaint to the Washington State Department of Health at:

510 4th Avenue W, Suite 404
Seattle, WA 98119

You may also file a complaint with the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services.

We respect your right to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services. If you complain, we will not retaliate against you.

Other Disclosures and Uses of Protected Health Information

Notification of Family and Others

- Unless you object, we may release health information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care. We may also give information to someone who helps pay for your care. We may tell your family or friends your condition and that you are in a hospital. This would be limited to your name and general health condition (for example, “critical,” “poor,” “fair,” “good” or similar statements). In addition, we may disclose health information about you to assist in disaster relief efforts.

You have the right to object to this use or disclosure of your information. If you object, we will not use or disclose it.

We may use and disclose your protected health information without your authorization as follows:

- With Medical Researchers—if the research has been approved and has policies to protect the privacy of your health information. We may also share information with medical researchers preparing to conduct a research project.
- To the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) relating to problems with food, supplements, and products.
- To Comply with Workers' Compensation Laws - if you make a workers' compensation claim.
For Public Health and Safety Purposes as Allowed or Required by Law:
 - to prevent or reduce a serious, immediate threat to the health or safety of a person or the public.
 - to public health or legal authorities
 - to protect public health and safety
 - to prevent or control disease, injury, or disability
 - to report vital statistics such as births or deaths.
- To Report Suspected Abuse or Neglect to public authorities.
- To Correctional Institutions if you are in jail or prison, as necessary for your health and the health and safety of others.
- For Law Enforcement Purposes, such as when we receive a subpoena, court order, or other legal process, or you are the victim of a crime.
- For Health and Safety Oversight Activities. For example, we may share health information with the Department of Health.
- For Disaster Relief Purposes. For example, we may share health information with disaster relief agencies to assist in notification of your condition to family or others.
- For Work-Related Conditions That Could Affect Employee Health. For example, an employer may ask us to assess health risks on a jobsite.
- To the Military Authorities of U.S. and Foreign Military Personnel. For example, the law may require us to provide information necessary to a military mission.
- In the Course of Judicial/Administrative Proceedings at your request, or as directed by a subpoena or court order.
- For Specialized Government Functions. For example, we may share information for national security purposes.
- To Coroners, Medical Examiners, Funeral Directors. We may disclose PHI to a coroner or medical examiner to identify a deceased person and determine the cause of death. In addition, we may disclose PHI to funeral directors, as authorized by law, so that they may carry out their jobs.
- Organ and Tissue Donations. If you are an organ donor, we may use or disclose PHI to organizations that help procure, locate and transplant organs in order to facilitate an organ, eye or tissue donation and transplantation.
- Incidental Disclosures. We may use or disclose PHI incident to a use or disclosure permitted by the HIPAA Privacy Rule so long as we have reasonably safeguarded against such incidental uses and disclosures and have limited them to the minimum necessary information.
- Limited Data Set Disclosures. We may use or disclose a limited data set (PHI that has certain identifying information removed) for purposes of research, public health, or health care operations. This information may only be disclosed for research, public health, and health care operations purposes. The person receiving the information must sign an agreement to protect the information.

SPECIAL AUTHORIZATIONS

Certain federal and state laws that provide special protections for certain kinds of personal health information call for specific authorizations from you to use or disclose information. When your personal health information falls under these special protections, we will contact you to secure the required authorizations to comply with federal and state laws such as:

- Uniform Health Care Information Act (RCW 70.02)
- Sexually Transmitted Diseases (RCW 70.24.105)
- Drug and Alcohol Abuse Treatment Records (RCW 70.96A.150)
- Mental Health Services for Minors (RCW 71.05.390-690)
- Communicable and Certain Other Diseases Confidentiality (WAC 246-100-016)
- Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Patients (42 CFR Part 2)

If we need your health information for any other reason that has not been described in this notice, we will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing any identifiable health information about you. Most important, if you choose to sign an authorization to disclose information, you can revoke that authorization at a later time to stop any future use and disclosure.

Other Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

- Uses and disclosures not in this Notice will be made only as allowed or required by law or with your written authorization.

PATIENT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

BY MY SIGNATURE BELOW I ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF THE NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES.

VERIFICATION OF MEDICAL CONSENT: I, the undersigned, hereby agree and consent to the plan of care proposed to me by the Covered Entity. I understand that I, or my authorized representative, have the right to decide whether to accept or refuse medical care. I will ask for any information I want to have about my medical care and will make my wishes known to the Covered Entity and/or its staff. The Covered Entity shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of others.

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE INFORMATION – IF APPLICABLE: I, the undersigned, hereby authorize the Covered Entity and/or its staff, to the extent required to assure payment, to disclose any diagnosis and pertinent medical information to a designated person, corporation, governmental agency or third party payer which is liable to the Covered Entity for the Covered Entity’s charges or who may be responsible for determining the necessity, appropriateness, or amount related to the Covered Entity’s treatment or charges, including medical service companies, insurance companies, workmen’s compensation carriers, Social Security Administration, intermediaries, and the State Department of Health and Human Services when the patient is a Medicaid or Medicare recipient. This consent shall expire upon final payment relative to my care.

FINANCIAL AGREEMENT:

PRIVATE PAY: I, the undersigned, hereby agree, whether signing as agent or as a patient, to be financially responsible to the Covered Entity for all charges not paid by insurance. I understand this amount is due at the beginning of the session.

INSURANCE COVERAGE – IF APPLICABLE: I certify that the information given to me in applying for payment under government or private insurance is correct. I hereby assign payment directly to the Covered Entity for benefits otherwise payable to me. Any portion of charges not paid by the insurance company will be billed to me and is then due and payable within thirty (30) days of invoice. I understand the Covered Entity will verify my insurance coverage but that this does not guarantee payment by the insurance company and I will be responsible for all non-covered charges. I understand that it is my responsibility to determine the coverage limits of my insurance.

I understand a minimum monthly fee of 1% (annual rate of 12%) may be charged for late payment on all balances not covered by insurance. This is in addition to a charge for reasonable attorney fees, court costs, and collection agency expenses incurred to collect the amount due.

VIDEO AND AUDIO RECORDING RELEASE

OPTIONAL

As an additional support for your counseling process it is sometimes beneficial to use video feedback as part of our work together. This means that I may ask to video or audio record you during specific dialogues, exercises, or during entire sessions. This will give us the option to play back these tapes in session to help you see patterns of behavior in yourself or your significant other (if applicable). Because it usually takes some time to setup a video camera or audio recorder, I'm requesting that we do the paperwork for this on the front end so that we can devote as much time to working on the issues that bring you into counseling. By viewing the videotape or listening to the audio recording in session, it allows us to "stop action" and process how you might approach an issue in a more productive way. It also allows you to witness your progress with your counselor and/or your relationship.

In addition to in-session use, I occasionally may use the video footage or audio recording to receive consultation from other health care professionals that I consult with. This may occur during time of treatment or thereafter for purposes of peer review, education and quality assurance. During this process your name will be kept confidential. In addition, all matters discussed with other health care providers will remain completely confidential. The video or audio recording will be used for no other purpose without your written permission and it will be deleted when it is no longer needed for these purposes.

These recordings are the property of Chris Chandler, MA, Licensed Counselor and will remain solely in my possession throughout the course of your counseling and until they are destroyed. Should you wish to review these recordings for any reason, we will arrange a session to do so. When unattended by me, these materials will remain in locked facilities and/or on encrypted computer systems always to ensure maximum confidentiality.

I _____ hereby grant my/our permission for any audio or video recording that may be deemed pertinent in the counseling of my/ourselves, my/our marriage, or my/our family. The counseling sessions, records, video, and audio recordings are strictly confidential except where I consent to release, where state law requires the reporting of threats, violence, harm or child abuse, and neglect (from evidence or suspicion), and when information is subpoenaed by the courts. No recording is permissible without prior authorization.

In no way, will the refusal to grant consent for this video or audio recording effect my/our getting assistance for myself/ourselves. I understand I may revoke this permission in writing at any time, but until I do so, it shall remain in full force and affect.

BILLING DISCLOSURE

I have a contract with ProHealthDesk, a billing service. As required by HIPAA, I have a formal business associate contact with ProHealthDesk, in which the individual doing the billing promises to maintain the confidentiality of information as specifically allowed in the contract or as required by the law.

INSURANCE REIMBURSEMENT:

In order for us to set realistic treatment goals and priorities, it is important to evaluate what resources you have available to pay for your treatment. If you have a health insurance policy, it will usually provide some coverage for mental health treatment.

If you use your insurance benefits, you are responsible for the co-pay at each session. You are also responsible for the annual deductible charged by your insurance company (usually at the beginning of the calendar year.)

IF YOUR INSURANCE COMPANY DOES NOT PAY A CLAIM FOR ANY REASON, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR FULL PAYMENT OF THE BILL.

You should be aware that your contract with your health insurance company requires that I provide information relevant to services rendered. I am required to provide a clinical diagnosis. I may be required to provide additional clinical information, usually a treatment plan.

I use a billing service to directly bill your insurance for you at least once a month. YOU WILL RECEIVE MONTHLY STATEMENT FROM TO REFLECT ACCOUNT BALANCES. IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS, PLEASE CALL 425-954-7494 or by email manager.chg@bellevuechristiancounseling.com

CREDIT CARD PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION FORM

Sign and complete this form to authorize Christian Management Services, LLC to debit your credit card as listed below.

By signing this form, you give us permission to debit your account for the amount indicated on or after the indicated date. This is permission for therapeutic treatment fees accrued while in treatment with Christian Management Services, LLC and does not provide authorization for any additional unrelated debits or credits to your account. Credit cards may be run if you forget to bring cash, check or a valid credit card to your session. Credit cards will also be debited if you fail to give adequate notice by phone of missing an appointment. No more than two consecutive missed appointments will be billed. A receipt of credit card processing will be sent to the email provided below.
